WEE WEDDINGS

It may seem like life has been on pause for a little while, but it is time to press play on your big day, and here at The Scotsman Hotel, we are working hard to ensure your wedding doesn't have to be on hold.

The Scotsman holds a license to conduct civil ceremonies within the hotel and offers the perfect setting for your intimate wedding celebration or civil ceremony. With our beautiful, fully refurbished wood panelled suites we can meet all of your aspirations for your special day.

We love to properly collaborate with our couples and find that our couples generally have a vision for a small, warm and welcoming wedding style, with Scottish flair and hospitality at the heart of the action.

We're close to all major transport links, with Edinburgh Waverley just a few minutes walk away. If you're arriving into Edinburgh Airport there are regular buses and trams to the City Centre.
